

aboutaccess

aboutaccess

About Communications Integrated Access Service provides voice and data services using About Communications secure dedicated digital access T1 line.

Integrated Access Service is designed to work with your existing Key System or PBX and related telephony and LAN equipment.

The Integrated Access Service will enable you to leverage existing hardware investment, and at the same time, potentially save on monthly combined telephony and broadband charges.